Dear Mrs. Falkner,

My deep thanks to you and your daughter.

I may be making an arrangement with a small New York publisher so I will not have to publish the Manchester book. If this happens, I'll be sending it to him in "takes" or instalments for him to edit for me and at that point is is quite likely retyping will be necessary. I'll let you know if this eventuates.

Your offer will then be of great value to me and I do, very much, appreciate it.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
